

ANNUAL CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

A Local Organizing Committee is established each year to plan the Annual Conference program and activities that take place around the Annual General Meeting. It is chaired by a member of the Board and consists of several representatives of the local community.

